The Farm at Old Edwards is a luxury special events facility located one mile from downtown Highlands. The bridal party can relax on the wedding day in the private 3-bedroom Farmhouse – and get ready for the event by having hair and make-up done in our on-site salon. For a memorable ceremony, the all-white Wedding Garden and Bridal Pavilion graciously extend an unparalleled majestic charm. The Pavilion's slate-floored enclosed Function Terrace features rough-cut wood beams and wrought-iron chandeliers.

For up to 275 guests.

The Orchard House at The Farm: The new ceremony venue covers 3,410 square feet and features massive glass doors which can be opened to the lush English-style gardens. The interior features a cozy, but soaring pine wood ceiling with a pickled finish as well as timeless ship-lap wall detail. Custom iron doors grace the main entrance and allow for an expansive entry, while a custom iron arched transom window provides a dramatic backdrop to the space. The beautiful, natural light is perfect for wedding photos.

For up to 275 guests

Half-Mile Farm is the newest acquired property at Old Edwards Inn. The country house sits high amongst 14 acres of lush rolling hills overlooking Apple Lake. Feel a world away only 5 minutes from downtown Highlands. The property can truly be called your own as all 34 rooms are reserved especially for your family and friends. Escape to the natural beauty of Half-Mile Farm for a wedding weekend to remember.

For up to 100 guests
